March 2023

“O Worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness;
let the whole earth stand in awe of him.” Psalm 96:9

What does worship mean? What does worship mean to you? When we consult our beloved Book of Common Prayer, we find corporate worship explained in this way: “In corporate worship, we unite ourselves with others to acknowledge the holiness of God, to hear God’s Word, to offer prayer, and to celebrate the sacraments” (857). Worship is principally understood as something we do in community – hence the label “corporate” worship. Certainly, one may interact with God on an individual level – and I hope you do so daily. Through prayer and meditating on scripture, we connect with God; however, we are hard pressed to enact the other aspects of worship by ourselves – “uniting with others” and “to celebrate the sacraments” – worship truly is “both/and”.

Another way of understanding how this all fits together is to remind ourselves of what the Prayer Book notes as “the duty of all Christians”: “The duty of all Christians is to follow Christ; to come together week by week for corporate worship; and to work, pray, and give for the spread of the kingdom of God” (BCP 856). There we have it: our individual obligations and our corporate expectations.

In Lent, our worship often incorporates different worship resources to help define the unique nature of Lent. The 40 Days of Lent are an excellent gift that invites us to grow in our relationship with God and with others. Our worship seeks to help us grow in this as well. As is our custom, our worship Sunday Mornings and at our midweek Eucharist will begin with “A Penitential Order”. This order of service moves the confession of sin to the beginning of our worship. This highlights the penitential nature of Lent – not a nature that seeks to oppress, but a nature that seeks to assure us that we are forgiven sinners immersed in the grace and mercy and love of God through Christ. We will also incorporate The Great Litany, the Decalogue (Ten Commandments) and The Exhortation at some point during Lent – each of these, in their own way, helping to raise our awareness of the tenets of the faith and offer guidance for our spiritual journey.

Also, you will note a shift in the accustomed “rites” for our principal worship services. One of the great gifts of our Prayer Book is it is easy to become accustomed to particular prayers or responses. One of the great challenges of our Prayer Book is it is easy for prayers and responses to become so familiar that we say them without thinking sometimes. To help sharpen our awareness of what we are saying and doing in our worship, the 8:30 a.m. service on Sunday will worship according to Rite 2, and the 10:30 a.m. service will worship according to Rite 1 for the season of Lent. This allows one to experience other services in the prayer book and draw our attention to different ways of praying the same prayers.

The 10:30 a.m. service will see a couple of noticeable additions/alterations during Lent. The service music (the Kyrie, Sanctus, and Fraction) will use forms that are not as familiar for the congregation. The choir will lead these offerings. If you are comfortable joining in singing them, please do. You may also give yourself a special Lenten gift by listening to the choir offer these beautiful settings on behalf of all of us (there’s a great tradition of this in our Church). The other noticeable change at the 10:30 a.m. service will be the singing of the Lord’s Prayer. While I know this will not be appreciated by all, this is yet one more way of experiencing the depth of worship that is our tradition and invite us to consider the depths of this beautiful prayer in a new way.

So I invite you to receive these additions/alterations during Lent as they are intended – ways to deepen our awareness of God’s presence and the depth and beauty of our liturgy. Don’t worry, once Lent concludes, our worship will resume a more familiar format (until the next great opportunity to explore additional worship resources 😊).

I look forward to walking the way of Lent with each of you.

Faithfully,

“Come and See”. Go and Be.

WORSHIP NEWS

MARCH'S SATURDAY EVENING SERVICE

We will gather March 18, at 5:00 p.m. Looking for a more contemplative worship experience? This service is for you. Utilizing contemplative music from communities such as Taize, this makes us of the breadth of liturgies that our church uses. Remember, we gather the third Saturday of each month at 5:00 p.m.

RITE OF RECONCILIATION

More commonly called "Confession", the Rite of Reconciliation is intended for those who desire to offer a confession as part of their Lenten discipline. While confessions may be offered at any time, Lent is an appropriate season for many to make use of this act. Fr. Grant is available on Thursday in Lent (and other times as well) to hear confession. Please speak with Fr. Grant ahead of time to schedule a time.

MIDWEEK BIBLE STUDY

"To the church of God that is in Corinth, to those who are sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be saints, together with all those who in every place call on the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, both their Lord and ours" (1 Cor 1:2) With these words, St. Paul sets in motion one of his most significant letters. In part, this letter focus on the challenges (and joys) of being in community. On Tuesday mornings following Morning Prayer at 9:00 a.m. we will begin study at 9:30 a.m., Fr. Grant will guide us through studying key themes and topics in 1 Corinthians. First session: 2/28/2023

WEDNESDAY EVENING SOUP SUPPER AND PROGRAM

We gather on Wednesdays in Lent (beginning March 1) from 5:30 p.m.–6:30 p.m. for supper and fellowship. Our program begins at 6:30 p.m. This year, our program will explore "Water & Spirit: Devotions for Lent". Each session will include small-group discussions as well as short plenary sessions. Devotion booklets will be available in the lobby beginning the week of 2/20.

SUNDAY MORNING FORMATION

On the Sundays in Lent, between our two worship services, we'll have the opportunity to gather over coffee with Deacon Jan as she explores "Lent as Pilgrimage". This is a wonderful opportunity to explore how we are invited to "grow" or "change" during Lent as we journey from a "point A" to a "point B".

LENTEN RESOURCES FOR FAMILIES (available in the Lobby)

This is a fun way for families (and individuals) to learn about holy women and holy men of our faith. Using the “March-Madness Bracket” concept, we journey through Lent learning and seeing who will win the Golden Halo. A bracket will be available in the parish hall posting each day’s “winner”. Join us. Play along!

“THE JOURNEY THROUGH LENT 2023”

This daily walk-through Lent is a great way to get involved with the season of Lent. Each day has a prompt to consider, an action to take, or a gesture to offer. This is an easy way to journey through Lent without having to plan a lot for the journey.

ECW Business Meeting Saturday March 4, 2023 @ 10:00 am

Lent is a time of self-reflection, repentance, and fasting in preparation for the great feast of Easter, and UTO will join you on that journey with our 40 Days of Gratitude Challenge. However you chose to join our gratitude challenge this year using the calendar—we are glad that you're here. You may be wondering how gratitude belongs in Lent instead of reflection over past failings, repentance and self-denial? Gratitude doesn't necessarily replace those things but it does go alongside them. Any honest self-reflection will bring to mind things for which to be grateful. Reflecting on past failings will, at the least, make you grateful that God loves us and gives us second chance after second chance to do better. And self-denial will fill you with gratitude for the eventual return of whatever it is you are denying yourself of during Lent. This Lent, we invite you to join us in fasting from ingratitude by noticing all of the small things we often overlook and give thanks for them. Find us @UnitedThankOffering on Facebook and Instagram. Simply use the enclosed calendar to mark the 40 days of Lent. We've also included a self-care prompt for the Sunday feast days during Lent as a way of further giving thanks and marking the Sundays set aside during Lent for rejoicing in the goodness of God.

There are Blue boxes available for all to use. If you prefer to write a check please make them out to St. Andrew's and write UTO in the memo line.
